

CLINICAL CODING TRAINING

COURSE CONTENT

- Understand the importance of the Clinical Coding function in Primary Care.
- Helps delegates understand the importance and process of data flow in practice.
- Allows delegates to gain an overview of the DOCMAN system.
- Gives delegates the ability to appropriately code and file all clinical correspondence.
- Gives delegates hands on experience using their own practice systems.
- Provides guided learning with an experienced service lead.
- Gives delegates the confidence to use DOCMAN and EMIS.
- Familiarisation of medical terminology.
- Continued on going support for all delegates.